Dear [REDACTED]

It is with great pleasure that the San Diego County takes in congratulating you on becoming the county's next set of millionaires, joining in this order the many that have participated and won with the Publisher's Clearing House, Reader Digest, Mega Millions and other sweepstakes competition. Congratulations again.

As you are aware, federal and state (county) taxes are applicable on your sweepstakes winnings as instructed by federal and state laws, Section 21 of the Gambling Act. As a senior citizen you are entitled to certain amount of exemptions, which puts you at an advantage of owning more of the funds you have won.

You will be required under Section 21 (c) to pay taxes in the amount of Eight Thousand Dollars ONLY ($8,000.00) as one-time federal and state taxes. This payment must be done through your representative and wire transfer facility bank: Bank of America – Mr. James Peterson (Senior Executive – Personal Banking), who can be contacted at 1-888-430- [REDACTED] extension 1. Do not speak with any other person. Mr. Peterson is the only one authorized by the American Government to deal with your winnings.

Attached below, you will find a copy of your check which is to be deposited to your Navy Federal Credit Union account when your tax payments have been duly completed. Funds from the check will be immediately available to you upon deposit.
